

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Layout of Publication	1
Chapter 1: Preparing for International Students with Disabilities	4
Section 504 and the ADA	5
Reasonable Accommodations	5
People-First Language	6
Preparation	7
Campus Partners	7
Conclusion	8
References	8
Chapter 2: Visible Disabilities	9
Visual Impairments	9
Color Blindness	11
Hearing Impairments	12
Mobility Limitations	14
Temporary Disabilities	16
Conclusion	16
References	16
Chapter 3: Invisible Disabilities	18
Chronic Health Conditions	18
Neurodiversity	21
Conclusion	24
References	24
Chapter 4: Mental Health and Substance Abuse	26
Mental Health	26
Substance Abuse Disorders	30
Conclusion	32
References	32
Chapter 5: Organizational Infrastructure	34
Identifying Partners	34
Policy Development	36
Cross-Campus Collaborations	37
Collaborations and Trainings	37
Conclusion	41
References	41

Chapter 6: Academic Accommodations	42
Testing and Diagnosis for Learning Disabilities	43
Adaptive Technology	44
Communication with Faculty	45
Conclusion	46
References	46
Chapter 7: Facilities Accommodations	47
On-Campus Housing	47
Access	48
Transportation	50
Conclusion	52
References	52
Chapter 8: Crisis Management for International Students with Disabilities	54
Personal Emergency Evacuation Plans	54
Crisis Management Teams	57
Behavioral Intervention Teams	58
Conclusion	60
References	60
Chapter 9: Service Animals	62
Service Animals	62
Emotional Support Animals	64
Advising International Students with a Support Animal	65
Conclusion	66
References	66
Chapter 10: The Role of Insurance for International Students with Disabilities	67
Insurance Administration	67
Understanding Insurance Coverage	68
Communicating Before Arrival	72
Connecting Students with Resources	73
Conclusion	74
References	74
Conclusion	76
Preparing for Common Disabilities	76
Collaborating on Campus	76
Connecting International Students with Accommodations	77
Managing Crises	77
Understanding Insurance	78
Final Thoughts	78