

Index

- academic affairs, administrative models, 46
- academic approval process. see course and program approval process
- academic calendar
  - administrative processes, 59
  - embedded programs, 99–101
  - proposal feasibility analysis, 53
  - short-term definition, 2
  - student orientation and reentry, 296
- academic centers, campus partnerships, 76–77
- academic course design. see also program development; specific aspects
  - academic goals and learning outcomes, 109–110
  - academic journals and reflection, 115–116
  - administrative processes, 52–53, 58
  - alternative program types, 183–190
  - campus partnerships, 75
  - conclusion, 122
  - contact and credit hours, 112
  - course attendance and participation, 116–117, 142–155
  - course grading, 119–120
  - credit vs. noncredit, 288–289
  - designing and proposing, 104–121
  - faculty familiarity with locations, 104–105
  - group presentations, 118
  - independent travel, 114
  - integrated vs. on-campus syllabi, 105–107, 123–155
  - intercultural development, 157–170
  - logistics and travel planning, 108–109
  - Nepal sample syllabus, 142–155
  - on-campus curriculum, 104
  - outcomes assessment, 171–181, 175
  - overview of book, 5
  - predeparture papers or assignments, 114–115
  - principles and practicalities, 103–155
  - program director preparation, 274
  - program models, 89–102
  - quizzes and exams, 118
  - readings, 113
  - research assignments, 121
  - research overview, 11
  - site reports/briefings, 113, 117
  - site visits, 112–113
  - teaching on the road, 107–108
  - technology use, 120–121
  - Thailand sample syllabus, 123–141
  - two faces of academics, 103–104
  - unstructured time, 113–114
  - using resources abroad, 110–112
  - working with program providers, 197
- academic credit
  - academic course design, 112
  - administrative processes, 59
  - alternative program types, 183–185
  - reflections from the field, 346
  - student orientation and reentry, 288–289, 292
- academic deans. see deans
- academic goals. see also learning outcomes; outcomes assessment
  - academic course design, 109–110
  - alternative program types, 183–184
  - intercultural development, 166–167
  - marketing and promotion, 247–248
  - reflections from the field, 345–348, 358–359
  - student preparation, 322
- academic integrity, administrative models, 51. see also outcomes assessment
- academic journals and reflection, academic course design, 115–116

- academic outcomes. see learning outcomes; outcomes assessment
- academic preparation. see student orientation and reentry
- academic senate
  - campus partnerships, 76
  - institutional support, 42
- academic structures and units, campus
  - partnerships, 76–77. see also specific entities
- academic visits. see tours, visits, and excursions
- acceptance process overview, 5, 257, 267–270. see also application, selection, and acceptance processes
- accommodations (for disabilities), 84–86, 292
- accommodations (housing)
  - logistics overview, 218–221, 222
  - meals, 223
  - reflections from the field, 355
  - reservations, 220
  - risk assessment, 319
  - safety and security strategy, 329–331
  - student orientation and reentry, 298
  - working with program providers, 199
- accrediting agencies, campus partnerships, 77
- ACE Center for Internationalization and Global Engagement, internationalization definition, 73
- active faculty category, 38
- administrative fees, 52, 228–230. see also fees
- administrative models
  - academic integrity, 51
  - centralized model, 46, 47–52, 54
  - decentralized model, 46–47, 54
  - hybrid model, 46, 50, 54
  - institutional liability, 51
  - participant selection, 51
  - standardized and transparent processes, 51–52
- administrative offices. see also specific entities
  - administrative structure, 45
  - budget responsibilities and authority, 232, 242
  - institutional support, 36–37
  - program director preparation, 280–281
- administrative partnerships. see campus partnerships
- administrative policies and procedures. see policies and procedures
- administrative processes. see also application, selection, and acceptance processes; specific aspects and entities
  - building support on campus, 45
  - course and program approval, 49, 53–56, 58, 76, 105
  - feasibility analysis, 52–53
  - global studies sample proposal, 58, 65–71
  - introduction, 45
  - key partners summary, 64
  - laying the groundwork, 45–52
  - logistical review, 53–54, 57–58
  - models of administration, 46–52
  - outcome of reviews, 58
  - overview of book, 2
  - planning for following year, 62–63
  - policy issues, 59–62, 64
  - program ownership, 56
  - screening and approval of faculty leaders, 58–59
- administrators. see also senior administrators; specific roles and concerns
  - audience for book, 4
  - budget responsibilities and authority, 231
  - campus partnerships, 74–76
  - institutional support, 36
  - reflections from the field, 5, 345–348
  - what providers expect, 204–205
- admissions office, campus partnerships, 81
- admissions requirements. see also application, selection, and acceptance processes
  - administrative processes, 51, 57
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 265–267
  - campus partnerships, 81
- affiliation agreements and contracts, 201–204, 206–209
- agreements with program providers. see program providers, working with
- airborne diseases, 324
- air travel. see also travel considerations
  - academic course design, 109
  - logistics overview, 216–217
  - risk assessment and management, 329
  - student orientation and reentry, 297
  - working with program providers, 197
- alcohol and drug use. see also medications
  - logistics overview, 223–224
  - managing mental health issues, 326
  - program director preparation, 279
  - safety and security strategy, 328
  - student orientation and reentry, 293, 296
- Allport, Gordon, 161–163, 169
- alternative program types
  - alternative service breaks overview, 185–186
  - credit question, 183–184
  - domestic study away overview, 189

- global community engagement overview, 185–186
- independent study overview, 186–187
- international internships overview, 185
- international office role, 189–190
- international rotations and clerkships, 188–189
- introduction, 89, 183
- overview of book, 5
- student teaching, 187–188
- terminology sample, 190
- undergraduate research, 186–187
- alternative service breaks
  - alternative program types, 185–186
  - research overview, 13, 14–15
- alumni and friends
  - institutional support, 35
  - marketing and promotion, 254
- Americans with Disabilities Act, 85, 262
- animal-borne diseases, 324
- antianxiety medications, 326. see also medications
- antidepressant medications, 326. see also medications
- apartment rentals, 220. see also accommodations (housing)
- application process overview, 5, 257, 259–265
- application, selection, and acceptance processes
  - acceptance process overview, 267–270
  - administrative models, 51–52
  - application checklist, 265
  - application process overview, 257, 259–265
  - eligibility requirements and selection criteria, 265–267
  - overview of book, 5
  - selection process overview, 257–259
  - terminology, 257
- artistic exhibitions, on-site resources, 111
- assessment of outcomes. see outcomes assessment
- Astin, Alexander, 160–161, 169
- athletes
  - institutional support, 37
  - participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
- ATM machine use, 238–239
- at-risk students, marketing and promotion, 248–249
- attendance of courses, 116–117
- audience for book, 2, 4
- audiovisual needs, 220–222
- awareness element of intercultural competence, 157
- background of book, 1–2, 4
- beds per room, 219. see also accommodations (housing)
- behavioral considerations. see also disciplinary considerations
  - academic course design, 117
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 261, 266
  - behavior contracts, 341
  - campus partnerships, 84–85
  - intercultural development, 159, 167–168
  - program director preparation, 278–279, 284–285
  - sending students home, 340–341
  - student orientation and reentry, 292, 301
  - working with program providers, 200
- Beliefs, Events, Values Inventory, 177
- Bennett, Milton, 163–164, 169
- bias in acceptance procedures, 269
- block enrollment, 78
- blood-borne diseases, 323
- brand identity, 247–248, 250–252. see also marketing and promotion
- Break Away, 186
- breakfasts, 223. see also meals
- budget considerations. see financial considerations
- budget, definition of, 230
- building of institutional support. see institutional support
- business office
  - campus partnerships, 78–79
  - institutional support, 36
  - logistics overview, 225
- bus transfers, group, 217–218
- “by selection” acceptance, 267–268
- “by seniority” acceptance, 269
- campus partnerships. see also institutional support
  - alternative program types, 190
  - business office, 78–79
  - conclusion, 86
  - creating policies and procedures, 77–81
  - department chairs, 74–75
  - disability services, 85–86
  - enhancing student recruitment and participation, 81–86
  - faculty senate or curriculum committee, 76
  - financial access, 83
  - health services, 85
  - human resources, 79–80
  - individual faculty, 75–76 institutional research and reporting, 77 internationalization, 73–77

 introduction, 73
 overview of book, 5
 program director preparation, 280–281
 program promotion, 81–82 provost and academic deans, 74
 registrar’s office, 78
 risk management and legal counsel, 80–81 specialized academic or research centers, 76–77 student affairs, 84–85 student recruitment, 82–83 cancellation and refund policies, 234 cancellation insurance, 335 career centers, 185, 190 career considerations for students
   campus partnerships, 83 international internships, 183–185
   research overview, 9 career services office
   campus partnerships, 83
   student orientation and reentry, 290
 Carnegie Foundation, community engagement, 186 cash vs. credit cards, 238–239, 300–301 cell phones. see telephones centralization
   administrative models, 46, 47–52, 54
   application, selection, and acceptance processes, 257 chairs of departments, campus partnerships, 74–75 chief financial officers, institutional support, 36 children of faculty members. see faculty guests and families classroom equipment, academic course design, 107 classroom space, logistics overview, 221–222 clerkships and international rotations, alternative program types, 188–189 Clery Act, 340
 closed applications, 267 coach transfers, 217–218. see also ground transportation codes of conduct, 84, 279 cohort development, research overview, 13 collaborations. see campus partnerships; institutional support collegiality, definition of, 33 communication considerations. see also technology and social media; specific aspects contacting local resources, 112
   health and safety overview, 333, 337–339
   intercultural development, 159, 167–168
   marketing and promotion, 249, 251
   program director preparation, 276
   risk management evolution, 316
   student orientation and reentry, 296, 298–301
   working with program providers, 197, 199, 204
 community-engaged learning
   alternative program types, 183, 185–186
   reflections from the field, 350–352
   research overview, 9
 Community Engagement Classification, 186 community engagement office, alternative program types, 190 community impact, research overview, 13, 15 competition, marketing and promotion, 249 comprehensive internationalization, definition of, 73 computer technology. see technology and social media conditions of enrollment form, 261 conduct codes, 84, 279. see also behavioral considerations conferences for reentry, overview of, 290, 304 consortium programs, 98–99, 228 consumers, use of term, 247 contact hours
   academic course design, 112
   administrative processes, 55, 59
   definition of, 112
 content considerations. see academic course design; specific areas of interest continuing education office, administrative models, 47 contracting with program providers. see program providers, working with cost considerations. see financial considerations counseling, mental health, 85, 325–326 course and program approval process
   academic course design, 105
   administrative processes, 49, 53–56, 58
   campus partnerships, 76
 course attendance, 116–117 course content considerations. see academic course design; specific areas of interest course credit. see academic credit course design. see academic course design course grading. see grading course objectives, outcomes assessment and, 174–175 course ownership considerations, 56
 CPR/first-aid training, 324

- credit cards vs. cash, 238–239, 300–301
- credit for courses. see academic credit
- crime. see also health and safety considerations
  - legal and reporting considerations, 339–340
  - reflections from the field, 362–363
  - safety and security strategy, 327–329
  - student orientation and reentry, 295–296
- crisis management. see also emergency response; risk management
  - health and safety overview, 337–340
  - institutional support, 41
- cross-cultural competence programs. see intercultural development
- cross-listed courses, 56, 59
- cultural knowledge development. see intercultural development
- cultural sensitivity. see also intercultural development
  - meal etiquette, 222
  - outcomes assessment, 177
  - student orientation and reentry, 301–302
- cultural values, continua of, 159, 170
- culture, definition of, 301
- culture, institutional, 249
- culture shock and cultural adjustment, 165–167, 302
- currency exchange, 234, 236, 238, 301
- curriculum committee
  - campus partnerships, 76
  - institutional support, 42
- curriculum integration, research overview, 13, 14
- curriculum, on-campus
  - academic course design, 104
  - campus partnerships, 76
- customized programs and providers, 92–94, 240. see also specific types

- deans. see also senior administrators
  - administrative models, 46
  - campus partnerships, 74
  - institutional support, 36, 42
- decentralization
  - administrative models, 46–47, 54
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 257
- demographics, student. see student characteristics and demographics
- denial notifications, 270
- department chairs, campus partnerships, 74–75
- design of courses. see academic course design
- destinations abroad. see locations abroad
- developmental model of intercultural sensitivity, 163–165
- development of programs. see program development
- digital media. see technology and social media
- dinners, 222–223. see also meals
- direct enrollment in predesigned programs, 94–95, 228. see also student enrollment
- directors. see also program director preparation; senior administrators
  - administrative models, 46
  - institutional support, 36
  - terminology, 4
- Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund, 85
- disability services. see also students with disabilities
  - campus partnerships, 84–86
  - student orientation and reentry, 292
- disciplinary considerations. see also behavioral considerations
  - academic course design, 117
  - administrative models, 51
  - campus partnerships, 84–85
  - program director preparation, 284–285
  - sending students home, 340–341
  - working with program providers, 200
- discipline-specific programming, research overview, 8–10, 12, 29
- disease prevention. see health and safety considerations
- Diversity Abroad Network, 293
- diversity considerations. see also student characteristics and demographics
  - marketing and promotion, 248–249, 251
  - participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
  - program director preparation, 278
  - student orientation and reentry, 293
- domestic community engagement, alternative program types, 186
- domestic study away
  - alternative program types, 189
  - domestic travel study as term, 4
  - terminology, 4
- drownings, 328
- drug and alcohol use. see alcohol and drug use; medications
- duration of programs. see program length

- education abroad as term, 4, 8, 190
- education abroad office administration. see administrative processes

- education abroad office partnerships. see campus partnerships; program providers, working with
- Education Amendments of 1972, Title IX of, 84–85, 293, 339–340
- electronic technology. see technology and social media
- eligibility requirements and selection criteria, 51, 265–267. see also application, selection, and acceptance processes
- e-mails. see also technology and social media
 academic course design, 111
 application, selection, and acceptance processes, 262, 269
 marketing and promotion, 249
 reflections from the field, 355
 risk assessment and management, 320
- embedded programs
 program models, 99–101
 reflections from the field, 350
 research overview, 13, 14, 16–17
 short-term definition, 2
- emergency response
 campus partnerships, 80 contact information, 262, 263 funding for, 234
 health and safety considerations, 322, 324– 325, 337–340
 student orientation and reentry, 296
- emerging adulthood stage, 161. see also student development
- emotional benefits, description of, 252–253
- employee considerations. see human resources
- employment considerations for students. see career considerations for students
- engaged learning, research overview, 9
- enrollment. see student enrollment
- equity considerations, student orientation and reentry, 293. see also underrepresented student groups
- essays, application process overview, 262–263
- ethical considerations international rotations, 188–189 provider vetting questions, 332
- ethnocentrism and ethnorelativism
 intercultural development, 163–164
 outcomes assessment, 177
- European Union, reflections from the field, 351
- exams and quizzes. see also learning outcomes
 academic course design, 118 tools for assessing outcomes, 176, 178–179
- exchange programs, 96–98
- exchange rates, 234, 236, 238
- excursions. see tours, visits, and excursions
- expense and budget considerations. see financial considerations
- experiences as term, 4, 8, 190
- expulsion of students, 117, 341. see also behavioral considerations
- Facebook. see also technology and social media
 academic course design, 111, 120
 marketing and promotion, 254
- Facetime, academic course design, 120. see also technology and social media
- faculty. see also human resources; program director preparation; specific concerns
 administrative processes, 49, 53–56, 58
 audience for book, 2, 4
 campus partnerships, 76 challenges to working with, 275–276 evaluation and assessment, 60, 75–76
 financial considerations, 237–240
 guest lecturers and local instructors, 222
 institutional support, 37–40
 logistics overview, 221–222
 overview of book, 5
 policy issues, 60–62
 program director as term, 273 salary and load, 40, 60–61, 232 student-faculty interaction research, 13, 14
 student orientation and reentry, 291–292
- faculty-directed programs. see also specific aspects and concerns
 alternative program types, 190
 financial considerations, 228
 program models, 89–92
 research overview, 12, 16–17
- faculty directors, use of term, 4. see also faculty leaders; program director preparation
- faculty guests and families
 administrative processes, 62
 financial considerations, 233
 risk assessment, 318
- faculty leaders. see also human resources; program director preparation; specific concerns
 academic course design, 104–105, 108
 accommodations, 219
 administrative processes, 46, 49, 51, 57–59, 61–62 application, selection, and acceptance processes, 267–270
 campus partnerships, 74–76, 79–80
 challenges of programs, 3

- credit vs. noncredit orientation and reentry, 288–289
- emergency response and crisis management, 337–340
- financial considerations, 232–233, 235, 237–240
- institutional support, 39
- intercultural development, 158, 168
- marketing and promotion, 248
- program models, 90–92
- program provider contracts, 202
- reflections from the field, 5, 353–355, 357–360
- risk assessment, 318
- role perceptions, 322
- screening and approval, 58–59
- short-term definition, 2
- teaching on the road, 107–108
- use of term, 4
- working with program providers, 199, 205
- faculty senate
  - campus partnerships, 76
  - institutional support, 42
- families. see faculty guests and families; parents and families
- Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 259–261, 263–264, 341
- farewell meals, 222. see also meals
- favortism in acceptance procedures, 269
- Federal Communications Commission, cybersecurity, 300
- fees
  - administrative processes, 52
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 262
  - budgets and, 228–230, 233, 235
  - for financial transactions, 238–239
- field protocols, 338–339
- field, reflections from. see reflections from the field
- financial aid
  - administrative processes, 52
  - budget policy, 233
  - campus partnerships, 83
  - institutional support, 36
  - reflections from the field, 362
- financial aid office
  - campus partnerships, 83
  - institutional support, 36
- financial considerations
  - academic course design, 104
  - accounting for expenses, 239
  - administrative processes, 51–53, 57, 60, 62–63
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 261, 262, 268
  - budget goals, 228–230
  - budget policy, 232–234
  - budget preparation, 234–235, 240, 242, 276–277
  - budget responsibilities and authority, 231–232, 242
  - budget sample, 242
  - budget terminology, 230
  - campus partnerships, 78–80, 83
  - contingency plans, 233–234
  - cost-containment measures, 42
  - expense records, 239–240, 243–245, 277
  - faculty load and salary, 60–61
  - handling funds while abroad, 238–239
  - institutional policies, 227
  - lessons learned, 240–241
  - logistics overview, 216–225
  - marketing and promotion, 249–250, 252–253
  - meals, 223
  - outcomes assessment, 178–179
  - overview of book, 5
  - program director preparation, 39–40, 276–277, 280
  - program models, 93–98
  - proposal feasibility analysis, 53
  - receipt sample, 242
  - reconciling program expenses, 239–240
  - reflections from the field, 362
  - reimbursement samples, 243–245
  - research overview, 17
  - setting program costs, 236–237
  - stipends and honoraria, 221
  - student orientation and reentry, 299, 300–301
  - tools for program leaders, 237–240
  - tuition policies, 227–228
  - value of study abroad, 178–179, 252–253
  - working with program providers, 196–198, 200–204
- financial office, logistics overview, 225
- financial officers, institutional support, 36
- fire safety, 329–330
- first-aid training and kits, 324
- first-generation students, marketing and promotion, 248–249
- fixed costs, separation of, 235
- focus groups, 250
- food-borne illnesses, 295, 323
- foreign currency costs, separation of, 226
- foreign exchange rates, 234, 236, 238
- foreign language learning. see language learning considerations

- Forum on Education Abroad
  - glossary, 4, 195
  - liability considerations, 51
  - outcomes assessment, 173
  - research overview, 10
- France program sample, 96
- free time. see unstructured time
- friends and alumni
  - institutional support, 35
  - marketing and promotion, 254
- functional benefits, description of, 252–253
- funding considerations. see financial considerations

- Galapagos program sample, 98
- gender as factor
  - accommodations, 219
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 260
  - safety and security strategy, 327
  - student orientation and reentry, 293
- general predeparture orientation. see also student orientation and reentry
  - checklist for, 305
  - overview of, 289, 304
- general reentry. see also student orientation and reentry
  - checklist for, 311
  - overview of, 290, 304
- Global Ambassadors for Patient Safety
  - workshop, 188
- global citizenship
  - Global Citizenship scale, 178
  - outcomes assessment, 176–177
  - research overview, 10
- global community engagement, alternative
  - program types, 9, 185–186. see also community-engaged learning
- Global Engagement Measurement Scale, 178
- global learning, program director preparation, 277–278. see also intercultural development
- Global Perspectives Inventory, 177
- global studies sample proposal, 58, 65–71
- goals of book, 2–4
- Google Hangouts, academic course design, 120. see also technology and social media
- governmental and intergovernmental agencies. see also specific entities
  - on-site resources, 110
  - reflections from the field, 350
- grading
  - academic course design, 114, 117, 119–120
  - administrative processes, 60
  - grade entry process, 78
- graduate credit, administrative processes, 59. see also academic credit
- graduate students, participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
- graduation requirements, participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
- grapevine communication, 254
- graphic identity, marketing and promotion, 251–252
- ground transportation. see also transportation
  - academic course design, 109
  - logistics overview, 215–218
  - risk assessment and management, 319, 329
  - student orientation and reentry, 297–298
- group coach transfers, 217–218
- group dynamics
  - intercultural development, 167–168
  - student orientation and reentry, 301
- group projects and presentations, 118
- group travel. see travel considerations
- guest lecturers, 221–222
- guests of faculty. see faculty guests and families
- guided tours, visits, and excursions. see tours, visits, and excursions
- The Guide to Outcomes Assessment in Education Abroad*, 10

- handheld devices. see technology and social media
- health and safety considerations
  - academic course design, 114
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 260, 262–264
  - budget goals, 230
  - campus partnerships, 73, 84–86
  - conclusion, 341–342
  - disease pathways, 295, 323–324
  - emergency response and crisis management, 337–340
  - health information forms, 262
  - information strategies, 320, 322
  - insurance matters, 333–336
  - intercultural development, 165
  - introduction, 315
  - liability issues, 336–337
  - logistics overview, 218–219
  - medication and health supplies, 294–295, 324–327

- mental health strategy, 325–327
- overview of book, 5
- physical health and medical strategy, 322–327
- program director preparation, 279–280, 285–286
- program element vetting, 320–321
- proposal feasibility analysis, 53
- reflections from the field, 358
- risk assessment overview, 317–320
- risk management evolution, 315–317
- safety and security strategy, 327–329
- sending students home, 340–341
- special considerations, 315
- student orientation and reentry, 292, 294–296
- student preparation, 321–331
- working with partners and providers, 331–333
- working with program providers, 197, 199–202, 331–333
- health insurance
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 259–260, 263–264
  - budget policy, 234
  - claims process, 334
  - institutionwide policy, 333–334
  - pre-existing conditions, 334
  - program director preparation, 279
  - proof of, 336
  - staff options for, 336
  - student options for, 334–335
  - student orientation and reentry, 295
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 259–260, 263–264
- health services
  - assessing and finding abroad, 324–325
  - campus partnerships, 85
  - health brigades, 188
  - mental health expertise, 325–326
  - professional medical oversight, 324
  - program director preparation, 279
  - research overview, 13, 14
  - rotations and clerkships, 188–189
  - student orientation and reentry, 294–296
- health supplies, health and safety considerations, 294–295. see also medications
- hedging, foreign exchange, 234
- higher education context
  - administrative processes, 45–71
  - campus partnerships, 73–86
  - institutional support, 33–43
  - overview of book, 4, 5
- high-impact practices, 38–39, 82, 175
- Hindu sample syllabus, 142–155
- homestays
  - logistics overview, 219
  - reflections from the field, 350–351
  - safety and security strategy, 330–331
- honoraria and stipends, 221
- host community impact, research overview, 13, 15. see also community-engaged learning
- hostels, 220, 223, 330. see also accommodations (housing)
- host universities. see also program providers, working with; specific concerns
  - academic course design, 89–90, 95–96
  - program providers, working with, 205
  - reflections from the field, 5, 353–356
- hotels. see accommodations
- housing. see accommodations (housing)
- human resources
  - administrative processes, 61–62
  - audience for book, 2, 4
  - program director terminology, 273
  - program leaders terminology, 4
  - working with program providers, 196–197
- human subjects, research guidelines for, 111
- hybrid administrative models, 46, 50, 54
- hybrid programs, 95–96

- iceberg concept of culture, 159, 169
- identification card, international, 111, 335
- immunizations, 323, 324
- independent study, alternative program types, 186–187
- independent travel. see travel considerations
- India
  - itinerary sample, 210–211
  - statement of conditions sample, 212–214
- indifferent faculty category, 37–38
- information technology department, education abroad applications, 260
- insect-borne diseases, 323
- Instagram, marketing and promotion, 254
- institutional agreements for exchange programs, 97
- institutional context, for outcomes assessment, 175–176
- institutional culture, marketing and promotion, 249
- institutional effectiveness office, marketing and promotion, 250
- institutional financial considerations. see financial considerations
- institutional goals and mission
  - financial considerations, 228–229
  - outcomes assessment, 180
  - working with program providers, 201

- institutional policies and procedures. see policies and procedures
- Institutional Review Board, interview guidelines, 111
- institutional strategy, research overview, 10, 12–13, 30
- institutional support, building. see also campus partnerships
  - administrative processes, 36–37
  - allies, 34–41
  - alumni and friends, 35
  - conclusion, 42–43
  - current students and parents, 34
  - external circumstances and roadblocks, 41–42
  - faculty, 37–40
  - introduction, 33–34
  - other international stakeholders, 37
  - outcomes assessment, 181
  - program providers and vendors, 40
  - prospective students and parents, 34
  - risk and crisis management teams, 41
  - senior administrators, 36
  - statistics, 40–41
  - traditionalists and optics of short-term, 42
- institutionwide insurance policy, 333–334
- insurance. see also health insurance
  - budgets and, 234
  - insurance overview, 333–336
  - logistics overview, 225
  - program director preparation, 279
  - student orientation and reentry, 295
  - working with program providers, 197, 202
- integrated vs. on-campus syllabi, 105–107, 123–155. see also academic course design
- intercultural development
  - alternative program types, 189
  - competence definition, 157–158
  - conclusion, 168
  - content considerations, 158–159
  - culture shock and cultural adjustment, 165–167
  - group dynamics, 167–168
  - integrating into academic discipline, 158–159, 169, 170
  - outcomes assessment, 177–178
  - overview of book, 5
  - program director preparation, 277–278
  - research overview, 8, 16
  - setting goals for learning, 166–167
  - student considerations, 165–168
  - student developmental theories, 159–164
  - student orientation and reentry, 301–302
- Intercultural Development Inventory, 177
- intercultural sensitivity, developmental model of, 163–164, 169
- interdisciplinary learning and teaching, research overview, 13, 15
- intergroup contact theory overview, 161–163, 169
- international education organizations, use of term, 195. see also program providers, working with
- internationalization. see also specific aspects
  - academic course design, 104
  - campus partnerships, 73–77
  - definition of, 73
- International Learning Outcomes scale, 177, 178
- international office. see also specific concerns
  - alternative program types, 184, 186–187, 189–190
  - institutional support, 36–37
  - role of, 189–190
- international rotations and clerkships, alternative program types, 188–189
- international stakeholders, institutional support, 37
- International Student Identification Card (ISIC), 111, 335
- international student services office, campus partnerships, 82
- Internet. see technology and social media
- internship office, institutional support, 37
- internships, international, 183–185, 197, 200
- interviews
  - of local people, 111
  - outcomes assessment, 176
  - selection process overview, 266–267
- ISIC (International Student Identification Card), 111, 335
- Italy program sample, 100–101
- itineraries. see also travel considerations; specific aspects
  - academic course design, 104–106, 108–109, 114
  - administrative processes, 57
  - campus partnerships, 80
  - health and safety considerations, 328
  - itinerary and statement of conditions sample, 210–214
  - logistics overview, 216–217, 223, 296
  - sample syllabi, 123–155
  - working with program providers, 200
- Jamaica program sample, 91
- Japan program sample, 98
- Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, 340

- journals and reflection
  - academic course design, 115–116
  - intercultural development, 165
- judicial/student conduct release/agreement forms, 261

- knowledge element of intercultural competence, 157

- language learning considerations
  - outcomes assessment, 173–174
  - research overview, 8, 14
  - student orientation and reentry, 299
- late payment policies, 234
- leadership element of short-term programs
  - abroad, 3, 4. see also faculty leaders; specific aspects and roles
- learning goals. see academic goals
- learning management systems, academic course design, 120. see also technology and social media
- learning outcomes. see also exams and quizzes; outcomes assessment
  - academic course design, 104–106, 109–110
  - institutional context, 175–176
  - research overview, 7, 9, 10, 16, 28
- legal considerations. see also liability
  - considerations; specific areas of concern
  - alcoholic beverages, 223–224, 279, 293
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 259, 261–264
  - campus partnerships, 80–81
  - disability services, 85–86
  - health and safety overview, 326, 339, 341
  - student orientation and reentry, 292
  - working with program providers, 201–202
- length of program. see program length
- LGBTQ students
  - application process overview, 260
  - safety and security strategy, 327
- liability considerations
  - administrative processes, 51, 59
  - health and safety overview, 323, 332–333, 336–337
  - logistics overview, 218, 221, 224
  - student orientation and reentry, 295
  - working with program providers, 197, 202, 332–333
- literature review. see research on short-term programs abroad
- load, faculty, 60–61

- local community engagement. see community-engaged learning
- local community impact, research overview, 13, 15
- local institution partners. see also host universities
  - logistics overview, 222
  - program models, 93
  - working with program providers, 205
- local instructors, logistics overview, 221–222
- local peers, discussions with, 351
- local people, as on-site resource, 111
- local taxes, 225
- local transportation. see ground transportation
- local universities and think tanks, as on-site resources, 110–111
- local vendors. see program providers, working with; vendors
- locations abroad
  - academic course design, 104–106
  - challenges of short-term programs abroad, 4
  - logistics overview, 219
  - program proposal feasibility, 52–53
  - risk assessment, 318–319
  - risk management evolution, 316
- lodging. see accommodations (housing)
- logistics. see also specific aspects
  - academic course design, 108–109
  - academic needs, 221–222
  - accommodations, 218–220
  - air travel, 216–217
  - as element of short-term programs abroad, 3
  - ground transportation, 217–218
  - introduction, 215–216
  - meals, 222–224
  - overview of book, 5
  - passports and visas, 224–225
  - review process, 53–54, 57–58
  - student orientation and reentry, 296–298
  - tours, visits, and excursions, 220–221
  - vendor payment, 225
  - working with program providers, 195, 205
- logos and logotypes, 251
- longitudinal data collection, 179, 181
- lunches, 222–223. see also meals

- marketing and promotion
  - administrative processes, 57
  - brand identity, 250–252
  - campus partnerships, 81–82
  - conclusion, 255
  - introduction, 247–248

- marketing definition, 247
- overview of book, 5
- program proposal feasibility, 52
- promotion definition, 247
- recruitment responsibility, 248
- research areas, 248–250
- social media tactics, 254–255
- terminology, 247
- traditional media tactics, 253–254
- value proposition, 252–253
- working with program providers, 197
- meals
  - financial considerations, 235, 239
  - logistics overview, 222–224
  - student orientation and reentry, 295
  - working with program providers, 199
- medical considerations. see health and safety considerations; health insurance
- medications
  - medical strategies, 324–327
  - student orientation and reentry, 294–295
- meeting space in hotels, 221
- mental health concerns. see also health and safety considerations
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 262
  - campus partnerships, 85
  - intercultural development, 165
  - managing issues abroad, 325–326
  - psychological releases, 340
  - student orientation and reentry, 294
- mid-educative experiences, 16
- mobile devices. see technology and social media
- models for programs. see program models
- models of administration. see administrative models
- multicultural affairs office, campus partnerships, 82
- multidisciplinary courses, ownership of, 56
- museums, on-site resources, 111
- music organizations, institutional support, 37

- NAFSA: Association of International Educators
  - financial access, 83
  - liability considerations, 51
  - outcomes assessment, 173
  - work, internship, and volunteering abroad programs, 184, 189
- National Student Exchange programs, 189
- National Survey on Student Engagement, 177, 185
- Nepal program sample, 142–155

- New England Resource Center for Higher Education, community engagement, 186
- news media
  - marketing and promotion, 253
  - on-site resources, 111
- noncredit vs. credit orientation, 288–289. see also alternative program types
- nondegree students, administrative processes, 60
- nongovernmental organizations
  - on-site resources, 110–111
  - reflections from the field, 351
- nontraditional students
  - marketing and promotion, 248–249
  - participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3

- on-campus curriculum
  - academic course design, 104
  - campus partnerships, 76
- on-campus vs. integrated syllabi, 105–107, 123–155. see also academic course design
- online technology. see technology and social media
- on-site coordinators, alternative program types, 185
- on-site group dynamics, intercultural development, 167
- on-site orientation and reentry. see also student orientation and reentry
  - checklists for, 308, 309
  - overview of, 289–290, 304
- on-site resources
  - academic course design, 110–112
  - overview of book, 5
  - proposal feasibility analysis, 53
- on-site services, overview of, 197–198. see also program providers, working with
- Open Doors* report
  - enrollment data, 1, 273, 353
  - international student participation, 82
  - noncredit education data, 184
  - short-term definition, 2
- oral proficiency interviews, 176
- orientation of students. see student orientation and reentry
- outcomes assessment. see also learning outcomes
  - academic course design, 114–118
  - added value of study abroad, 178–179
  - administrative processes, 51

- aligning with course objectives and learning experiences, 174–175
- conclusion, 181
- institutional context, 175–176
- institutional support, 38–39
- introduction, 171–172
- limited time as factor, 179–180
- overview of book, 5
- policy issues, 60
- stakeholder considerations, 180–181
- student orientation and reentry, 302
- student satisfaction surveys, 172–173
- tools for, 176–178
- why to do it, 173–174
- working with program providers, 200
- Overseas Security Advisory Council, 296
- overview of book, 2, 4–5
- ownership of courses, 56

- packing lists and tips, 297
- parents and families
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 261, 262
  - campus partnerships, 81–82
  - cost transparency, 230
  - faculty members' families, 62, 233, 318
  - institutional support, 34–35
  - marketing and promotion, 254
  - student orientation and reentry, 299
- participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3. see also student participation
- partnerships. see campus partnerships; program providers, working with
- passports and visas
  - alternative program types, 185
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 260
  - campus partnerships, 82
  - copies of, 224, 262
  - logistics overview, 224–225
  - student orientation and reentry, 296–297
- payment authorization forms, 261
- payment considerations. see financial considerations
- personal oratories, outcomes assessment, 176
- personal statements, application process
  - overview, 262–263
- phones. see telephones
- photographs
  - appropriate use of technology, 121
  - marketing and promotion, 252, 255
  - student orientation and reentry, 301
- physical health considerations. see health and safety considerations
- PIN numbers, 239
- planning timelines, 198
- policies and procedures. see also administrative processes; specific issues and policy areas
  - academic calendar, 59
  - budget decisions, 232–234
  - campus partnerships, 73, 77–81
  - communication, 338
  - course credit, 59
  - evaluation and assessment, 60
  - faculty guests, 62
  - faculty load and salary, 60–61
  - financial considerations, 227
  - institutional support, 36–37
  - nondegree students, 60
  - program size, 61
  - staffing, 61–62
  - student orientation and reentry, 292
  - study abroad applications, 264
  - summary of, 64
- postcourse processing opportunities. see also student orientation and reentry
  - academic course design, 108, 120
  - intercultural development, 165–166
- postprogram services, overview of, 197–198. see also program providers, working with
- prebooking as consideration, 220–221
- predeparture assignments
  - academic course design, 114–115
  - intercultural development, 167
- predeparture financial responsibilities, 237–238
- predeparture marketing and promotion, 255
- predeparture orientation workshops, 289, 304. see also student orientation and reentry
- predesigned programs, direct enrollment in, 94–95
- pre-existing conditions, exclusion of, 334
- preparation of faculty and students. see program director preparation; student orientation and reentry
- preprogram services, overview of, 197–198. see also program providers, working with
- prescription drugs. see medications
- presidents. see also senior administrators
  - institutional support, 36
  - reflections from the field, 5, 345–348
- price considerations. see financial considerations
- print media
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 260–262
  - campus partnerships, 81–82
  - marketing and promotion, 253–255

privacy considerations, application, selection, and acceptance processes, 259–261, 263–264, 341 probation. see also disciplinary considerations

- administrative models, 51
- campus partnerships, 84

procedures and policies. see policies and procedures procurement office, expense records, 240 product, use of term, 247 professional development. see program director preparation; specific areas of interest profile, applicant, 259–260 program and course approval process. see course and program approval process program assessment. see outcomes assessment program as term, 4

program costs, definition of, 230. see also financial considerations program destinations. see locations abroad program development. see also academic course design

- administrative processes, 52–53
- financial considerations, 227–245
- logistics, 215–225
- marketing and promotion, 247–255
- overview of book, 2, 5
- research overview, 9, 11, 28
- selection process overview, 257–270
- working with program providers, 195–214, 197 program director preparation. see also specific aspects

- administrative processes, 59
- campus collaboration sample, 280
- conclusion, 280–281
- faculty director case studies, 285–286
- financial considerations, 237–238
- institutional support, 39–40
- insurance options, 336
- introduction, 273–274
- needs assessment, 275, 283–284
- overview of book, 5
- program director as term, 273
- project management worksheet sample, 281–282
- reflections from the field, 354–355
- responsibilities, 273–275
- tools and methods, 275–280 program duration. see program length

program element vetting, 320–321

program evaluation and assessment. see outcomes assessment program fees, definition of, 230. see also fees program financial considerations. see financial considerations program leaders. see also faculty leaders; program director preparation

- alternative program types, 185
- audience for book, 2
- financial considerations, 232–233
- health and safety considerations, 322, 326, 337–338
- use of term, 4

program length

- distinguishing short term, 3
- embedded programs, 99
- outcomes assessment, 179–180
- research overview, 7, 15–17
- risk assessment, 319–320
- short-term definition, 2

program locations. see locations abroad program marketing. see marketing and promotion program models. see also alternative program types

- consortium programs, 98–99
- customized programs and providers, 92–94
- direct enrollment in predesigned programs, 94–95
- embedded programs, 99–101
- exchange programs, 96–98
- faculty-directed programs, 90–92
- hybrid programs, 95–96
- introduction, 89–90
- needs to consider, 101–102 program ownership considerations, 56 program proposals. see academic course design program providers, working with

- academic course design, 111
- affiliation agreements and contracts, 201–204, 206–209, 333
- benefits of, 196
- choosing a provider, 203
- classroom space, 222
- definition and role, 195–196
- disadvantages of, 196–197
- financial considerations, 202–203
- health and safety considerations, 331–333
- institutional support, 40
- introduction, 195
- itinerary and statement of conditions sample, 210–214
- legal considerations, 201–202, 332–333
- navigating relationships, 204
- on-site services abroad, 199–200
- overview of book, 5

- partner vs. provider as term, 195
- postprogram services, 200
- preprogram services, 197–198
- program models, 89–90, 92–96
- range of services, 197–200
- reflections from the field, 5, 349–352
- risk assessment, 318
- support element of short-term programs
  - abroad, 4
- types of providers, 205
- what providers expect, 204–205
- what to expect from, 200–201
- program size, administrative processes, 61
- program-specific orientation and reentry. see
  - also* student orientation and reentry
  - checklists for, 306–307, 310
  - content considerations, 293–294
  - overview of, 289, 304
- program summary reports, 63, 64
- program timing. see academic calendar
- program types, alternative. see alternative program types
- project management worksheet sample, 281–282
- promotion and marketing. see marketing and promotion
- providers, program. see program providers, working with
- provosts. see also senior administrators
  - administrative models, 46
  - campus partnerships, 74
  - institutional support, 36, 42
- psychotropic medications, 325–327. see also medications
- public relations office, role of, 250. see also marketing and promotion
- public transportation. see also ground transportation
  - logistics overview, 218
  - risk assessment and management, 329
  - student orientation and reentry, 298
- quality considerations. see also outcomes assessment
  - institutional support, 38–39
  - marketing and promotion, 251
- quizzes and exams. see exams and quizzes
- reading assignments, academic course design, 113
- receipts, 239, 242
- received wisdom, 174
- recommendations, submission of, 262
- recruitment of students. see student recruitment
- reentry. see student orientation and reentry
- references and testimonials, 203
- reflection and journals
  - academic course design, 115–116
  - intercultural development, 165
- reflections from the field
  - faculty perspective, 357–360
  - host university perspective, 353–356
  - president’s perspective, 345–348
  - provider’s perspective, 349–352
  - student perspective, 361–363
- refund and cancellation policies, 234
- registrar’s office
  - campus partnerships, 78, 81, 83
  - institutional support, 36–37
- Rehabilitation Act, 85
- reimbursements, 239–240, 243–245
- release forms, 261, 263
- rental cars, 218
- reporting considerations, health and safety
  - overview, 339–340
- reporting offices, campus partnerships, 77
- research assignments, academic course design, 121
- research centers, campus partnerships, 76–77
- research guidelines, for human subjects, 111
- research offices
  - campus partnerships, 77
  - outcomes assessment, 175
- research on short-term programs abroad. see also specific areas of interest
  - alternative service breaks, 14–15
  - campus partnerships, 77
  - changing rationale, 7, 8–9
  - cohort development, 13
  - conclusion, 17
  - curriculum integration, 14
  - discipline-specific programming, 12
  - embedded programs, 14
  - faculty and student interaction, 14
  - health care professions, 14
  - host community impact, 15
  - institutional strategy, 12–13
  - interdisciplinary learning and teaching, 15
  - introduction, 7–8
  - learning outcomes, 7, 10
  - marketing and promotion, 248–250
  - needed areas of research, 13–15
  - overview of book, 4–5
  - programming and development, 11
  - student characteristics and demographics, 11, 248–249

- student choice and decisionmaking, 11–12
- student development, 10–11
- trends in research, 7, 9–13, 28–30
- untested claims and casual assumptions, 7, 15–17
- research programs
  - alternative program types, 186–187
  - reflections from the field, 351
- reservations, 220
- residence halls, 220. see also accommodations (housing)
- resources abroad. see on-site resources
- review committees, administrative processes, 54–56
- review system for program providers, 203
- risk and release form, 261, 263
- risk management. see also health and safety considerations
  - campus partnerships, 78–81
  - evolution of, 315–317
  - health and safety overview, 337–340
  - high-risk activities, 328–329
  - information acquisition strategy, 320
  - institutional support, 41–42
  - logistics overview, 225
  - overview of book, 5
  - program director preparation, 279–280
  - proposal feasibility analysis, 53
  - risk assessment overview, 317–320
  - working with program providers, 199, 201
- risk management office
  - institutional support, 41
  - logistics overview, 225
- “rolling” acceptance, 268–269
- room and board. see accommodations (housing); meals
- rotations, international, 188–189

- safety and security considerations. see health and safety considerations
- Safety Matrix, 317–320, 322
- salary, faculty, 40, 60–61, 232
- satellite phones. see telephones
- scholarships, reflections from the field, 362. see also financial aid
- selection, acceptance by, 267–268
- selection process overview, 5, 257–259. see also application, selection, and acceptance processes
- self-analysis, marketing and promotion, 249–250
- self-expressive benefits, description of, 252–253
- self-reported achievement, 176, 177

- semester-embedded programs. see embedded programs
- senate, faculty
  - campus partnerships, 76
  - institutional support, 42
- senior administrators. see also administrators; specific roles and concerns
  - audience for book, 4
  - budget responsibilities and authority, 231
  - campus partnerships, 74
  - institutional support, 36, 41–42
  - program director preparation, 280
  - reflections from the field, 5, 345–348
- seniority, acceptance by, 269
- service breaks, alternative
  - alternative program types, 185–186
  - research overview, 13, 14–15
- service learning, 185, 197, 200, 350. see also community-engaged learning
- service-learning office
  - campus partnerships, 77
  - institutional support, 37
- sexual harassment or violence, 84–85, 327–328, 339–340
- sexually transmitted diseases, 323
- short-term programs abroad. see also specific aspects and concerns
  - alternative program types, 190
  - benefit types, 252–253
  - challenges of, 2–4
  - enrollment trends, 1, 7, 273
  - faculty perspective, 357–360
  - host university perspective, 353–356
  - introduction, 1–5
  - negative perceptions of, 103
  - overview of book, 2, 4–5
  - overview of research, 7–17, 28–30
  - president’s perspective, 345–348
  - provider’s perspective, 349–352
  - short-term definition, 2
  - student perspective, 361–363
  - terminology, 4, 8, 190, 357
- site reports and briefings, academic course design, 113, 117
- site visits. see tours, visits, and excursions
- skills element of intercultural competence, 157
- Skype
  - mental health counseling, 85, 326
  - vetting via, 321
- slogans and themes, 251–252
- smartphones. see telephones
- Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP), 294, 328

- Snapchat
  - appropriate use of technology, 121
  - marketing and promotion, 254
- social media. see technology and social media
- software. see technology and social media
- soil-borne diseases, 324
- Spain program sample, 92
- Spanish plus program sample, 95
- specialized academic or research centers,
  - campus partnerships, 76–77
- spouses of faculty members. see faculty guests and families
- SSS (Student Support Services)/TRIO grants, 82
- staff considerations. see human resources; specific concerns
- standardized and transparent processes,
  - administrative models, 51–52
- statement of conditions and itinerary sample, 210–214
- statistics, importance as metric, 40–41
- STEP (Smart Traveler Enrollment Program), 294, 328
- stipends and honoraria, 221
- storytelling
  - marketing and promotion, 255
  - outcomes assessment, 175, 176
- Strengthening Study Abroad*, 83
- student acceptance process. see application, selection, and acceptance processes
- student affairs unit
  - administrative models, 46
  - campus partnerships, 84–85
  - program director preparation, 278–279
- student air travel providers, 217. see also air travel
- student application process. see application, selection, and acceptance processes
- student characteristics and demographics
  - marketing and promotion, 248–249, 251
  - participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
  - program director preparation, 278
  - reflections from the field, 358–359
  - research overview, 10, 11, 16–17, 29
  - student orientation and reentry, 293
- student choice and decisionmaking, research overview, 10, 11–12, 29
- student conduct considerations. see behavioral considerations
- student costs, separation of, 235
- student development
  - intercultural development, 159–164
  - program director preparation, 278–279
  - research overview, 9, 10–11, 15, 28
- student enrollment. see also student participation; student recruitment
  - administrative processes, 57, 61
  - budget policy, 233
  - campus partnerships, 77–79
  - direct, in predesigned programs, 94–95, 228
  - importance as metric, 40–41
  - outcomes assessment, 172
  - program models, 89, 94–95
  - program size considerations, 61
  - trends, 1, 7, 273, 353, 355
- student expulsions, 117, 341. see also disciplinary considerations
- student financial considerations. see financial considerations
- student goals. see academic goals
- student health and safety considerations. see health and safety considerations
- student identification card, international, 111
- student involvement theory overview, 160–161, 169
- student learning outcomes. see learning outcomes
- student mobility, as internationalization goal, 73
- student orientation and reentry. see also specific aspects and concerns
  - academic course design, 108, 120
  - administrative processes, 51
  - assessment and evaluation, 302
  - campus partnerships, 81, 85
  - conclusion, 303
  - content considerations, 291–303
  - credit vs. noncredit sessions, 288–289
  - culture shock and cultural adjustment, 165
  - future opportunities, 302–303
  - health and safety overview, 321–331
  - homestays, 331
  - in-person vs. online, 77, 287–288
  - intercultural development, 167–168
  - introduction, 287
  - marketing and promotion, 255
  - orientation checklist samples, 305–308
  - orientation overview, 289–290
  - orientation types overview, 304
  - overview of book, 5
  - reentry checklist samples, 305–308
  - reentry overview, 290–291
  - reentry types overview, 304
  - reflections from the field, 354–355
  - working with program providers, 197, 199–200
- student outcomes. see learning outcomes; outcomes assessment

- student participation. see also specific aspects
  - academic course design, 116–117
  - administrative models, 51
  - campus partnerships, 73, 81–84
  - financial considerations, 236–237
  - institutional support, 34–35
  - marketing and promotion, 248–249
  - participant element of short-term programs
    - abroad, 3
    - reflections from the field, 5, 361–363
- student preparation. see student orientation and reentry
- student recruitment. see also marketing and promotion
  - campus partnerships, 73, 81–84
  - institutional support, 34–35
  - responsibility for, 248
  - traditional media tactics, 253–254
  - working with program providers, 197
- student retention model, 14
- student safety considerations. see health and safety considerations
- student selection process. see application, selection, and acceptance processes
- students returning home, 340–341. see also student orientation and reentry
- student support services. see also specific concerns and entities
  - administrative processes, 58
  - campus partnerships, 82
- Student Support Services (SSS)/TRIO grants, 82
- student surveys, 172–173, 250
- students with disabilities
  - campus partnerships, 84–86
  - marketing and promotion, 248–249
  - student orientation and reentry, 292
- student teaching, alternative program types, 187–188
- study abroad as term, 4, 8, 190
- study abroad office administration. see administrative processes
- study abroad office partnerships. see campus partnerships; program providers, working with
- study abroad value. see outcomes assessment; value of study abroad
- study away as term, 4
- Subaru branding example, 250
- suicidal thoughts, 326
- summer programs
  - program models, 89
  - short-term definition, 2
- summer sessions office, administrative models, 47
- supportive faculty category, 38
- surveys, student, 172–173, 250
- swimming safety, 328
- syllabi, integrated vs. on-campus, 105–107, 123–155. see also academic course design
- taxes, local, 225
- teaching assistants, administrative processes, 61–62
- teaching, student, 187–188
- technology and social media. see also specific aspects
  - academic course design, 53, 107, 111–113, 117, 120–121
  - application, selection, and acceptance processes, 260–262, 269
  - audiovisual needs, 220–222
  - campus partnerships, 81–82
  - digital handbooks, 287, 291
  - digital photography, 121
  - digital storytelling, 175, 176
  - emergency response and crisis management, 337–338
  - logistics overview, 220, 221
  - marketing and promotion, 249–252, 254–255
  - online assignments, 120–121
  - online reviews, 219
  - outcomes assessment, 175
  - risk assessment and management, 316, 320
  - student orientation and reentry, 77, 287–288, 291, 299, 300
- telephones
  - academic course design, 112, 117
  - contacting local resources, 112
  - emergency contact information, 262, 293, 296
  - emergency response and crisis management, 337–338
  - mental health counseling, 326
  - student orientation and reentry, 299
  - vetting via, 321
- terrorism, health and safety considerations, 328
- tests. see exams and quizzes
- text messages. see also technology and social media
  - emergency response and crisis management, 337–338
  - risk assessment and management, 320
  - student orientation and reentry, 299
- Thailand sample syllabus, 123–141
- themes and slogans, 251–252

- think tanks and local universities, on-site resources, 110–111
- time element of short-term programs abroad. see program length
- timing of programs. see academic calendar
- tipping practices, 218
- Title IX, Education Amendments of 1972, 84–85, 293, 339–340
- tolerance, outcomes assessment, 177. see also diversity considerations
- tour operators, program providers vs., 195, 205
- tours, visits, and excursions. see also transportation; specific aspects
  - academic course design, 105–106, 112–113, 117
  - logistics overview, 219–221, 223
  - official tour guides, 221
  - reservations, 220
  - student orientation and reentry, 298
  - working with program providers, 199
- training for employees. see program director preparation; specific areas of interest
- transcripts, application process, 261, 262
- transgendered or transitioning students, 260, 327
- transparency considerations
  - administrative models, 51–52
  - budgets, 230
  - selection process overview, 267
  - student orientation and reentry, 294
- transportation. see also specific modes
  - health and safety considerations, 329
  - logistics overview, 215–219
  - risk assessment and management, 319, 329
  - sending students home, 340
  - student orientation and reentry, 297–298
  - working with program providers, 197–198
- travel agencies, 205, 216–217
- travel considerations
  - academic course design, 108–109, 114
  - administrative processes, 57–58
  - group vs. individual arrangements, 217, 297
  - logistics overview, 216–218
  - participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
  - program director preparation, 286
  - reflections from the field, 361–363
  - working with program providers, 197–198, 200, 205
- travel documents. see passports and visas
- Traveler’s Checklist, 296
- traveler’s checks, 300–301
- travel reimbursement form samples, 243–245
- trip cancellation insurance, 335
- trust issues, with program providers, 196–197, 200
- tuition policies. see also financial aid; financial considerations
  - financial considerations, 227–228, 233
  - tuition definition, 230
- Twitter
  - appropriate use of technology, 121
  - marketing and promotion, 254
- underenrollment, administrative processes, 57
- undergraduate research, alternative program types, 186–187
- underrepresented student groups, enrollment statistics use, 40
- United Kingdom, enrollment trends, 353, 355
- universities as hosts. see host universities
- unstructured time
  - academic course design, 108, 113–114
  - working with program providers, 200
- unsupportive faculty category, 37
- Upper Midwest Association for International Education, learning objectives, 109–110
- U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
  - health and safety considerations, 323, 324
  - student orientation and reentry, 295
- U.S. currency costs, separation of, 226
- U.S. Education Department
  - emergency response and crisis management, 340
  - measures of credit, 183
- U.S. State Department
  - safety and security strategy, 328
  - student orientation and reentry, 294, 296–297
- utilization dates, 217
- vaccinations, 323, 324
- value-added tax, 225
- value of study abroad. see also outcomes assessment
  - assessing, 178–179
  - institutional support, 33–43
  - marketing and promotion, 252–253
  - reflections from the field, 345–348
- variable costs, separation of, 235
- vegetarians and vegans, 224. see also meals
- vendors. see also program providers, working with
  - campus partnerships, 78–79
  - institutional support, 40
  - payment, 225

- vetting as term, 320–321
- vice presidents, administrative models, 46. see also senior administrators
- Victor vetting tool, 203
- videos. see also technology and social media
  - academic course design, 120
  - intercultural development, 165
  - marketing and promotion, 255
  - mental health counseling, 85, 326
  - student orientation and reentry, 287, 289, 299
- visas. see passports and visas
- visits. see tours, visits, and excursions
- visual identity, marketing and promotion, 251–252

- waitlists, 268, 270
- waivers
  - FERPA/HIPAA, 259–261, 263–264, 341
  - liability, 337
- water-borne illnesses, 295, 323, 324

- water safety (activities), 328–329
- web-based application software, 260, 287. see also technology and social media
- welcome and farewell dinners, 222. see also meals
- working students. see also career considerations for students
  - marketing and promotion, 248–249
  - participant element of short-term programs abroad, 3
- working with program providers. see program providers, working with
- work, internship, and volunteering abroad
  - programs, 184, 189. see also alternative program types; internships
- workshops for orientation and reentry, overview of, 289, 290, 304. see also student orientation and reentry
- world language learning assessment, 173–174. see also language learning considerations

- zoonoses, 324