Contents

Foreword ........................................................................................................................................... i

NAFSA International Education Professional Competencies™ ....................................................... v

Advocacy

The Path from Response to Recovery: Lessons Learned in Emergency Management ............. 1

Supporting International Students During COVID-19 ................................................................. 7

Communication with External Stakeholders

The 5Cs of Crisis Communication ................................................................................................. 12

Managing Fears with Effective Communication ........................................................................... 13

In the Loop: 6 Strategies for Communicating with Parents During Emergencies .................. 16

When a Reporter Calls .................................................................................................................. 19

Human Resources

Best Practices for Managing Remote and Global Teams ............................................................... 22

Caring for Staff During Unprecedented Times ............................................................................. 27

International Educators Share Tips for Community Support and Self-Care ............................. 30

Leadership

Questions for Responding to Emergencies in Education Abroad .............................................. 34

Responding to International Students’ and Scholars’ Needs During a Worldwide Health Crisis ........................................................................................................... 37

Responding to an International Student or Scholar Serious Illness, Injury, or Death ................ 40

Responding to a Student Mental Health Crisis ............................................................................ 43

Responding to a Crisis in a Student’s or Scholar’s Home Country .............................................. 45

Leading in a Time of Uncertainty: An Interview ........................................................................ 47

Collegial Conversation: Practical Operations in Crisis Management ....................................... 51

Strategic Planning

Questions for Guiding a Holistic Response ................................................................................... 65

Education Abroad Center Crisis Response Plan: Discussion and Sample ............................... 67

Continuity of Operations Plan for the International Education Office ...................................... 71

Additional NAFSA Resources .................................................................................................. 73