Contents

Acknowledgments ......................................................................................... ix

Introduction | LANITRA M. BERGER, PhD .............................................................. 1

Part I. Social Justice Research

1 International Education’s Potential for Advancing Social Justice
   DAVID WICK, EdD, AND TASHA WILLIS, EdD ........................................ 11

2 Equity Education in a Time of Rising Nationalism: Challenges and Complexities
   SUPRIYA BAILY, PhD ........................................................................ 43

3 The Evolution of Social Justice in International Higher Education
   AARON CLEVENGER, EdD ................................................................. 63

   SHONTAY DELALUE, PhD ................................................................. 83

5 “Rebeldes en Acción”: A Case Study in English Teaching in a Marginalized Colombian High School
   YECID ORTEGA, MA ........................................................................ 111

Part II. Social Justice in Practice

6 View, Voice, and Visibility: A Liberating Framework for Social Justice in Education Abroad
   EDUARDO CONTRERAS JR., EdD ........................................................ 137

7 Social Justice-Centered Education Abroad Programming: Navigating Social Identities and Fostering Conversations
   MALAIKA MARABLE SERRANO, MA .................................................. 155
8  |  Social Justice and Study Abroad at Historically Black Colleges and Universities: A Case Study of Howard University
   |  TONIJA HOPE NAVAS, MA .................................................. 173
9  |  Supporting Deaf Students in Education Abroad
   |  BECCA ABURAKIA-EINHORN, MPA ........................................... 191
10 |  Integrating Refugees into U.S. Higher Education
   |  BRYCE LOO, MA ........................................................................ 215
11 |  Exploring the Intersection of Transnationalism and Critical Race Theory: A Critical Race Analysis of International Students’ Experiences in the United States
   |  CHRISTINA W. YAO, PhD; CHRYSAL A. GEORGE MWANGI, PhD; AND VICTORIA K. MALANEY BROWN, PhD .................................................. 247

Part III. Perspectives from the Field ............................................... 269

8  |  Building a Movement for Justice: Short-Term Programs Abroad
   |  SHOSHANNA SUMKA, MAA .......................................................... 271
9  |  Study Abroad: The Power of Finding Your Place in the World
   |  SALLY SCHWARTZ, MA .................................................................. 275
10 |  Toward Family Diplomacy for a More Caring World
   |  PAUL LACHELIER, PhD ................................................................. 279
11 |  Embracing Our Greater Purpose: The Role of International Education in Advancing Educational Equity
   |  ANDREW J. GORDON ................................................................... 283
12 |  Afrrophobia and International Education
   |  KESHIA ABRAHAM, PhD .................................................................. 287
13 |  Street Law: Using the Law to Effect Social Justice
   |  SEAN ARTHURS, EdLD, AND JOHN LUNNEY, MSc ....................... 293
14 |  Perspectives on the Intersections of Social Justice and International Education
   |  JESSICA BLACK SANDBERG, MA .................................................. 297
15 |  Social Justice Through the Eyes of an International Educator
   |  RODOLFO “RUDIE” ALTAMIRANO, PhD ........................................ 301
16 |  Social Justice and International Education: Where Are the Voices of International Students and Scholars?
   |  LING G. LEBEAU, PhD .................................................................. 305
The Sustainable Development Goals, Social Justice, and Global Learning
JOE WARREN, MPhil .............................................................. 309

The Fight for Refugee Children’s Education
ZAMA NEFF, JD ................................................................. 313

over&over
PÁDRAIG Ó TUAMA, MTh ...................................................... 317

About the Authors ................................................................. 321